Brethren, be followers together of me, and mark them which walk so as ye have us for an ensample. (For many walk, of whom I have told you often, and now tell you even weeping, that they are the enemies of the cross of Christ: whose end is destruction, whose god is their belly, and whose glory is in their shame, who mind earthly things.) For our citizenship is in heaven; from whence also we look for the Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ: who shall change the body of our humiliation that it may be conformed unto the body of his glory, according to the working whereby he is able even to subject all things unto himself.

St. Matthew 22:15-22

BCP 222

Then went the Pharisees, and took counsel how they might entangle him in his talk. And they sent out unto him their disciples with the Herodians, saying, Master, we know that thou art true, and teachest the way of God in truth, neither carest thou for any man: for thou regardest not the person of men. Tell us therefore, What thinkest thou? Is it lawful to give tribute unto Caesar, or not? But Jesus perceived their wickedness, and said, Why tempt ye me, ye hypocrites? Shew me the tribute money. And they brought unto him a penny. And he saith unto them, Whose is this image and superscription? They say unto him, Caesar's. Then saith he unto them, Render therefore unto Caesar the things which are Caesar's; and unto God the things that are God's. When they had heard these words, they marvelled, and left him, and went their way.

Isaiah 64:1-12

Oh that thou wouldest rend the heavens, that thou wouldest come down, that the mountains might flow down at thy presence, as when the melting fire burneth, the fire causeth the waters to boil, to make thy name known to thine adversaries, that the nations may tremble at thy presence! When thou didst terrible things which we looked not for, thou camest down, the mountains flowed down at thy presence. For since the beginning of the world men have not heard, nor perceived by the ear, neither hath the eye seen, O God, beside thee, what he hath prepared for him that waiteth for him. Thou meetest him that rejoiceth and worketh righteousness, those that remember thee in thy ways: behold, thou art wroth; for we have sinned: in those is continuance, and we shall be saved. But we are all as an unclean thing, and all our righteousnesses are as filthy rags; and we all do fade as a leaf; and our iniquities, like the wind, have taken us away. And there is none that calleth upon thy name, that stirreth up himself to take hold of thee: for thou hast hid thy face from us, and hast consumed us, because of our iniquities. But now, O LORD, thou are our father; we are the clay, and thou our potter; and we all are the work of thy hand. Be not wroth very sore, O LORD, neither remember iniquity for ever: behold, see, we beseech thee, we are all thy people. Thy holy cities are a wilderness, Zion is a wilderness, Jerusalem a desolation. Our holy and our beautiful house, where our fathers praised thee, is burned up with fire: and all our pleasant things are laid waste. Wilt thou refrain thyself for these things, O LORD? wilt thou hold thy peace, and afflict us very sore?

THE ALTAR FLOWERS are given by Glen and Kennie Wieland to the Glory of God in loving memory and celebration of the 100th birthday of Marie Wieland.

WELCOME: We welcome all our visitors this morning! Please join us in the Kimsey Hall Parish House (take a left out of the church and follow the sidewalk) after Mass for coffee and fellowship. You are invited to complete a Welcome Card, located in the pew rack, and place it in the alms basin so we might be able to contact you.

ADULT FORUM: Join us in Kimsey Hall at 9:15 as we learn about those Church fathers who shaped the church and her theology in her earliest years.

FAMILY PICNIC: Meet us today for our annual family picnic at Trotwood Park from noon until 6pm! Bring a dish to share at the potluck, but the burgers, dogs and paper products are provided by the church. This a great time to meet up with old friends, as well as to build relationships with those we see less frequently and create a stronger parish family.

WORK DAY: Thank you to everyone who came yesterday to work around our parish grounds in preparation for the new year! The place looks wonderful!

LOAVES AND FISHES: Next Sunday, please deposit non-perishable items for our monthly second Sunday food drive in the receptacles provided. Your donations support the HOPE Helps Pantry, as they work to help those who are fighting homelessness right here in our local area.

SECOND SUNDAY POT-LUCK LUNCH: Join us next Sunday for our monthly pot-luck lunch following the second service. It's a wonderful time of fellowship that serves to strengthen the fabric of our parish family.

A Letter from Bishop Grundorf:

"To Fr. Ralph, Fr. Peter, all the clergy and parishioners of St. Alban's Church family, I want to thank you for your love, prayers, and thoughtfulness since my lymphoma diagnosis. I look forward to returning to church during my treatment time; being at Mass and worshipping with you is so much a part of my life. Because of my compromised immune system, Mary and I will sit in the chapel during Mass and I will be wearing the "dreaded mask." I am also told by my healthcare workers that I should not hug, but confine my greetings to a fist bump. My treatments, if all goes well, will continue through February 2025, when I will be re-evaluated. We do plan to participate in Sunday School and any outdoor activities, such as the picnic today. Presently, after the first series of chemotherapy, I am feeling well and I pray all will continue that way, by the grace of God. I am grateful to our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, for his continued mercies to me, and to Mary for her loving care, and the blessings of being part of this wonderful church. Blessings, +Walter"
