

Diocese of the Eastern United States

Vision: To be a community of faith expressing the life and communion of the holy Trinity in the historic Anglican tradition.

Mission: To bring people to Jesus Christ and to incorporate them into the community of faith through our historic Anglican tradition.

St. Alban's Anglican Cathedral

St. Alban's is the Cathedral Church of the Diocese of the Eastern United States of the Anglican Province of America. We are a part of the historic Holy Catholic Church, tracing our teaching and ministry to the Apostolic Church, and part of the worldwide Traditional Anglican movement.

Second Sunday after Christmas

January 5, 2025

The drawing of St. Alban's Cathedral is the work of Marie Cashion, a member of the parish family

WELCOME!

We are delighted that you have chosen to worship with us at St. Alban's. We are blessed by your presence. In this booklet you will find the order of the liturgy. In worship, we use the American Book of Common Prayer (1928 Edition) which is found in the pews. The hymns listed here and on the hymn board in the front of the church are found in the Red Hymnals in your pew. Our Bible readings are provided in this bulletin and Bibles are in your pew if you prefer to look up the passages.

Nursery care is available in Kimsey Hall Parish House. Please ask an usher for directions to our Nursery.

Isaiah 61:1-3

BCP 106

The Spirit of the Lord GOD is upon me; because the LORD hath anointed me to preach good tidings unto the meek; he hath sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to them that are bound; To proclaim the acceptable year of the LORD, and the day of vengeance of our God; to comfort all that mourn; To appoint unto them that mourn in Zion, to give unto them beauty for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness; that they might be called trees of righteousness, the planting of the LORD, that he might be glorified.

St. Matthew 2:19-23

BCP 107

When Herod was dead, behold, an angel of the Lord appeareth in a dream to Joseph in Egypt, Saying, Arise, and take the young child and his mother, and go into the land of Israel: for they are dead which sought the young child's life. And he arose, and took the young child and his mother, and came into the land of Israel. But when he heard that Archelaus did reign in Judaea in the room of his father Herod, he was afraid to go thither: notwithstanding, being warned of God in a dream, he turned aside into the parts of Galilee: And he came and dwelt in a city called Nazareth: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophets, He shall be called a Nazarene.

Second Sunday after Christmas

Micah 4:1-5, 5:2-4

But in the last days it shall come to pass, that the mountain of the house of the LORD shall be established in the top of the mountains, and it shall be exalted above the hills; and people shall flow unto it. And many nations shall come, and say, Come, and let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, and to the house of the God of Jacob; and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths: for the law shall go forth of Zion, and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem. And he shall judge among many people, and rebuke strong nations afar off; and they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruninghooks: nation shall not lift up a sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more. But they shall sit every man under his vine and under his fig tree; and none shall make them afraid: for the mouth of the LORD of hosts hath spoken it. For all people will walk every one in the name of his god, and we will walk in the name of the LORD our God for ever and ever. But thou, Bethlehem Ephratah, though thou be little among the thousands of Judah, yet out of thee shall he come forth unto me that is to be ruler in Israel; whose goings forth have been from of old, from everlasting. Therefore will he give them up, until the time that she which travaileth hath brought forth: then the remnant of his brethren shall return unto the children of Israel. And he shall stand and feed in the strength of the LORD, in the majesty of the name of the LORD his God; and they shall abide: for now shall he be great unto the ends of the earth.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Upon entering the nave of our church, we begin to prepare ourselves for our Lord's blessings and forgiveness. After communion, we give thanks in quiet prayer. Silence and respect are requested at both times for all who are in prayer.

THE ALTAR FLOWERS are given today by Ann Hernandez to the glory of God and in thanksgiving for Ann and Ed's 60th wedding anniversary!

Altar Flowers can be donated for $50 in memory of or thanksgiving for those whom the Lord has put into our lives. Please see the sign-up sheet on the bulletin board if you are interested in serving in this way.

WELCOME: We welcome all our visitors this morning! Please join us in the Kimsey Hall Parish House (take a left out of the church and follow the sidewalk) after Mass for coffee and fellowship. You are invited to complete a Welcome Card, located in the pew rack, and place it in the alms basin so we might be able to contact you.

ADULT FORUM: Join us in Kimsey Hall at 9:15 as we learn about those Church fathers who shaped the church and her theology in her earliest years. Most adult forums, including the "year-through-the Bible" and early church fathers lectures, can be accessed on YouTube at: youtube.com/@st.albanschurch3298.

THANK YOU from the clergy and staff for your very generous Christmas Purse! We are all touched and grateful for your love and support.

TWELFTH NIGHT: Join us this evening for a Twelfth night party to culminate Christmastide here at Kimsey Hall Parish House at 5 pm! We'll sing Christmas carols, have dinner and cake, and enjoy the customary burning of the Christmas tree.

THANK YOU to Anyah Cook for her selfless service in the Neatnicks for so many years. She is retiring from the Neatnicks and will shortly be moving to Tennessee. God bless you, Anyah!

YOUNG ADULTS GROUP will recommence this Wednesday night, January 8th at the Joslyn home.

THE THURSDAY WOMEN'S BIBLE STUDY Many of the women of the Bible you'll know, such as Sarah, Rachel, Delilah, and Ruth. Others, such as Keturah, Noadiah, and Asenath, will most likely be unfamiliar. But whether well-known or obscure, all these women provide examples we can learn from and apply to our lives today. Some serve as role models to emulate; others portray qualities to avoid. Together, they comprise a rich cross execution of human character and experience. Come join us Thursday mornings at 10:30 to find out more. All are welcome!

"EPIPHANY" is a Greek word, meaning 'a manifestation; an appearance; a forthcoming.' The full title of the feast, as it appears in the Book of Common Prayer, is 'The Manifestation of Christ to the Gentiles,' i.e., to the (non-Jewish) nations. The observance of Epiphany is older, liturgically speaking, than the keeping of Christmas, and arose in the ancient metropolitan sees of the Christian East. The Feast itself is usually associated with the visit of the Magi (recorded in St. Matthew's Gospel), but the Sundays following treat the theme of Christ's glory made manifest at various striking moments in His early life and ministry—the finding of the youthful Jesus by his parents in the Temple after Passover, the descent of the Holy Spirit in the form of a dove at His Baptism, and His miraculous transformation of water into wine at the marriage-feast of Cana in Galilee, with which St. John tells us was the first of those signs by which he "manifested forth His glory."

HOUSE BLESSING It is an old custom, just as the Magi blessed the house of the holy family with their worship and offerings, for the clergy of the church to offer blessings on Christian homes during the season of the Epiphany. If you would like your house blessed this year, please contact Fr. Ralph or Fr. Peter to schedule. As part of this blessing, priests will often

"chalk the door" of the dwelling, an outward expression of our hope and expectation that the Holy Spirit will guard and guide our out-going and our in-coming for the year. This is often performed with the acronym "C+M+B," which both stands for the Latin phrase, Christus Mansionem Benedicat ("May Christ bless this house"), as well as for the names traditionally assigned to the Magi in medieval legend (Caspar, Melchior, and Balthasar).

PARENTS IN PRAYER: Parish members are welcome to join the Ecclesial School's "Parents in Prayer" group, a monthly gathering to pray for the students, faculty, and administration of ESI and St. Alban's Church. Please join us this Friday, Jan. 10 at 8:10 am in Kimsey Hall Parish House. Contact Taryn Clark (tclark@esischools.org) for more information.

SAMARITAN RESOURCE CENTER ~ We serve the homeless on the last Monday of each month, preparing the meals on the day (Sunday) before. Sign up sheets are on the bulletin board for Prep and Delivery of meals. There are still plenty of openings for the coming months.
